Additional Notes:

- This plan is predicated on the assumption that entering freshmen who propose to major in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a concentration in French and Francophone Studies have some language skill.
  - For students who place above FRE 1010, 1020, 1040 or 1050, those courses in the Four Year Guide should be replaced with Free Electives.
  - Due to the various levels at which students enter the language major, significant adjustments to the 4-year plan may be necessary.
- Foreign language requirement:
  - Student must take the Foreign Language Placement Test to determine starting course for the foreign language sequence.
  - If FRE 1010 & 1020 taken for prerequisite purposes, they will count in place of 6 hours of Free Electives (3 hours per course).
  - FRE 1050 may be used in both major and Gen Ed requirements. If used to fulfill a Gen Ed Perspective theme course, replace one "Gen Ed Perspective" with Free Elective.
  - FRE 1060 may substitute for FRE 1040 & 1050.
  - Foreign language classes can be taken in summer semesters.
- Appalachian State University participates in a bilateral exchange program with the University of Angers that offers a wide variety of courses that can be used to meet major requirements. Information about other study abroad opportunities in French-speaking countries is available in the Office of International Education and Development All majors interested in studying abroad should discuss their plans in detail with an academic advisor a year or more in advance.
- Reading, Speech, & English proficiencies required.
- Admission to Teacher Education is required. To be admitted to the Teacher Education Program students must take and satisfy testing requirements for Reading, Writing and Math areas of the PRAXIS (PPST or CBT).
- Licensure requires a cumulative 2.5 GPA.
- Residency Requirements:
  - 31 hours overall must be from ASU
  - 18 hours in the major must be from ASU
  - 9 hours in the minor must be from ASU
