Additional Notes:

- This plan is predicated on the assumption that entering freshmen who propose to major in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a concentration in French and Francophone Studies have some language skill.
 - For students who place above FRE 1010, 1020, 1040 or 1050, those courses in the Four Year Guide should be replaced with Free Electives.
 - Due to the various levels at which students enter the language major, significant adjustments to the 4-year plan may be necessary.
- Foreign language requirement:
 - Student must take the Foreign Language Placement Test to determine starting course for the foreign language sequence.
 - Note: Appalachian's language placement test is designed for placement purposes only, and a score on this test alone is not sufficient to demonstrate intermediate-level proficiency.
 - If FRE 1010 & 1020 taken for prerequisite purposes, they will count in place of 6 hours of Free Electives (3 hours per course).
 - FRE 1060 may substitute for FRE 1040 & 1050.
 - Foreign language classes can be taken in summer semesters.
- Appalachian State University participates in a bilateral exchange program with the University of Angers that offers a wide variety of courses that can be used to meet major requirements. Information about other study abroad opportunities in French-speaking countries is available in the Office of International Education and Development All majors interested in studying abroad should discuss their plans in detail with an academic advisor a year or more in advance.
- Reading & English proficiencies required.
- Admission to Teacher Education is required. To be admitted to the Teacher Education Program students must have a minimum 2.7 cumulative GPA and take & satisfy testing requirements for Reading, Writing and Math areas of the PRAXIS (PPST or CBT).
- Graduation and licensure requires a cumulative 2.7 GPA.
- Please consult with your advisor to ensure you will complete the appropriate number of free electives as needed to reach the 120 total hours required for your degree.
- Residency Requirements:
 - 30 hours overall must be from ASU
 - 18 hours in the major must be from ASU
 - 9 hours in the minor must be from ASU
